of penal servitude far exceeding your natural life? And what is more, I HAVE you noticed our inside pages? Of course you have noticed the home pages, the locals and editorials. Several of our readers have complimented us, thanks.

It is with pleasure we notice our paper is stirring up our neighbors.
Anarchy seems to reign in the republican camp, but then that is a natural outgrowth of imperialism.

THE Grand Island Democrat came to bur table last week advocating Wm. H. Thompson for U. S. senator along with Allen. The whole of the first page was devoted to his cause and contained a good photo-cut of the man.

THE Nebraska State Fair bids fair to be one of the best in history of the state and will be held at Lincoln September 3 to 7.

The fish display, agriculture display, manufactures, arts and every exhibit is calling for much space.

THE party leaders talk about the Mid-roads and seem to think they are a big figure in politics. On election day you will see they are a nonity. The Socialist ticket will poll more votes than they, and will be third party in this state as well as in Kansas.

THE Ord Journal is one of the best populist papers in the state.
Its editorials are sound, its locals good and even the two columns of boiler plate used last week was above the average. The editor often shoots at his opponents and hits them hard at every shot.

DO you ever hear of strikes in the postoffice department, in the revenue department, the treasury department or even in the army where the men only get thirteen dollars a month. Why not let the government own and manage the railroads. It would mean shorter hours and better pay for the employees and cheaper service to the people.

THE following persons voted for McKinley in 1896, but are for Bryan now. Webster Davis, Edwin F.
Walker, secretary of republican club at Evenston, Ill. E. L. God-kin, Editor Post of N. J. Judge C.
L. Holtz leader of Germans of Cleveland Ohio. Gen. John G. Beaty, ex-republican congressman of Ohio. Patrick Eagan, Ben Harrison's minister to Chile. S. Zeis-ler noted lawyer of Chicago. Judge P. A. Louble, president of Ohio Bar Association. This is but a few and ones that will stump and speak for Bryan.

THE Nebraska Dairyman of Lincoln, a red red hot McKinley sheet thinks everybody should vote and support the present administration because we have such prosperous times. Perhaps Israel the editor does not know of the failures, lockouts, big strikes, and discharges that have taken place the past year.
Of course the trusts, the railroad magnates, money shylocks, octopus corporations, etc., are very prosperous under the rule of Mc-Kinley. But the day laborer, the factory girl, the clerks and bookkeepers, the traveling drummers are not so prosperous and there is more of them idle to-day than there was two years ago or four years ago.

Senatorial Convention.

A delegate convention of the people's party for the 13th senatorial district is hereby called to meet at O'Neill, Nebraska, Sat. August 25, at 8 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of selecting a candidate for senator in said district and to transact such other business as may be in order at that time. The representation gives one delegate at large and one for each one hundred votes or major fraction thereof cast for Hon.
Silas Holcomb, for supreme judge at the last election, which gives the respective counties in the district the following representation:

Boyd	9	Garfield	3
Holt	16	Wheeler	3

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed and that the delegates present cast the full vote of their respective delegation.

E. S. Eves, Chairman.

Democrat convention same time and place.

Boyd	8	Garfield	3
Holt	16	Wheeler	2

Frank Campbell, Ch'm.

WE are for Bryan is why we say what we do. Some think we ought to keep still, but nit.

WHEN it rains the corn grows.
When McKinley reigns the trusts grow.

This office force wears Bryan and Stevenson buttons from the St.
Louis Button Company of 620 north Broadway St. Louis Mo. Their
al and true to life. Write them or call at this office for prices.

It can be seen that there are more trusts under Hanna's administration than ever in the history of our nation. Do you want it to continue as at present. Trusts gather the money in the hands of the few and rob labor. It increases prices of certain articles the people buy. It also lowers the output of our factories and throws thousands out of employment.
This is the trust administration.
High prices and idle labor, strikes and malitia.

- Trust in matches,
- Trust in soap;
- Trust in iron,
- Trust in rope.
- Trust in wire,
- Trust in grease,
- Trust in finware,
- Trust in fleece;
- Trust in flour,
- Trust in meal;
- Trust in rolled oats,
- Trust in steel.
- Trust in clothing,
- Trust in shces;
- Trust in school books,
- Trust in booze.
- Trust in leather,
- Wherewith we're shod.
- And the people are left To trust in God.

THE Commissioners Convention
meets Saturday. Otto Michel, J.
W. Brockus and Mike O'Connor are spoken of as candidates. The last is urged by the democrats and silver republicans. The names of L. J. Garrison and W. I. Cram have been mentioned. There seems to be many good names to select from

OUR BROWNIES TALK

Lady Fair,
Brownish hair,
Reynon sighed,
Olliver cried,
Where was the woman when the baby cried?
It was a slight,
A funny plight,
Mitchell was red
When Olliver said,
Where was the woman when the baby cried?

That peculiar noise that sounds like thunder the last few days is the cord growing since the late rains.

This little caused a Kansas editor to get horse whipped. He said: "Two young men went with their girls to Etna to a teachers institute and as soon as they left, the girls got drunk." It should have been, as soon as they left the girls, got drunk.

What you know, added to what you don't know, added to what everybody don't know, is equal to what some politicians think they know.

A Missouri editor says he stepped into the store of a business man and was surprised to find him busy. The storekeeper had the itch and a Waterbury watch and when he was not scratching himself he was winding his watch. —Wills Point [Texas] Chronicle.

All the liars are not dead yet.
An exchange tells of an artist in the town where it is published who painted a dog so natural the animal had the hydrophobia during the hot weather. He's the same one who painted a beer bottle with such skill that the cork flew out just as he was finishing it. And after he was married he painted a picture of his first paby so life-like that it cried and his wife spanked it before she discovered her mistake.

Notice of Adaption.

why said children shall not be adapted as set forth in said sworn statements.

be published in the MASCOT, a newspaper published in Burwell, Garfield county, Nebraska, and of general circulation therein, for three successive weeks prior to said hearing.
Dated August 14, 1900. R. L. MILLER, County Judge.

[Seal] W. L. JONES,
County Judge.

Madam—Well, Mary, what did you think of the pictures at the academy?
Mary—Oh, mum, there was a picture called "Two Dogs," after Landseer; but I looked at it for nearly half an hour, and I couldn't see no Landseer
